This property is set in the back part of the town of Ayora, and is set in a quiet street with parking and just a 5 minute walk from the centre of town, close to all amenities.

The property has five bedrooms in total, with one situated on the ground floor which also consists of an entrance hall, leading to a lounge/diner with feature fireplace. This then leads into a kitchen with air conditioning, then a bathroom, followed by a wood store, and a door leading out to a patio. This floor has been lived in but would benefit from some modernising. There is also a trap door leading down to a bodega.

There are stairs leading up to the 1st floor which consists of a large room which have been used for traditional storage, but could be converted. Another set of stairs lead up to another two large rooms, which again could be converted into living accommodation.

The roof is original, but has been renovated, and shows no sign of leakage.

The property benefits from Mains water, electricity, and waste.

The area of Ayora is one of the safest places to live in Spain, with many expats in the surrounding towns, but mainly has a Spanish population with a lovely community feel and everyone looking out for one another.
